

Media Advisory

Comptroller Lierman to Visit Eastern Shore to Promote IRS Direct File

Stops planned at VITA and AARP tax preparation sites in Dorchester and Wicomico Counties

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (March 4, 2025) — Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman will visit the Eastern Shore on Wednesday, March 5, 2025, to encourage eligible Marylanders to file their state and federal taxes for free online with the IRS Direct File platform. Maryland is one of 25 states participating in the IRS Direct File program and an estimated 870,000 Marylanders are eligible to use Direct File this tax season.

Comptroller Lierman will visit Delmarva Community Services in Cambridge to meet Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and AARP tax preparation volunteers. She will then travel to Salisbury to see team members working in the Maryland Comptroller's Salisbury Branch Office as well as a VITA site at Shore at Shore Up! Inc.

Schedule for March 5, 2025

10:00 a.m. | Tour Delmarva Community Services VITA Site

108 Chesapeake St.
Cambridge, MD 21613

11:45 a.m. | Visit Comptroller of Maryland Salisbury Branch Office

1306 South Salisbury Blvd., Suite 182
Salisbury, MD 21801

12:30 p.m. | Tour VITA Site at Shore Up Inc.

520 Snow Hill Road
Salisbury, MD 21804

###

Media Contacts

Robyne McCullough

rmccullough@marylandtaxes.gov

410-980-0139 (cell)

Barbara Sauers
bsauers@marylandtaxes.gov
410-212-9414 (cell)

Comptroller of Maryland, 80 Calvert Street, Annapolis, Maryland 21401, United States