

Media Advisory

Comptroller Lierman, Governor Moore, Urban Institute, and Partners to Share Tax Credit Uptake Research Thursday

Preliminary findings to guide future promotion of Earned Income Tax Credit and Child Tax Credit

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (July 15, 2025) — Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman will be joined on Thursday, July 17, 2025, by Governor Wes Moore, Maryland House Speaker Adrienne Jones, Governor’s Office of Children Special Secretary Carmel Martin, senior researchers from the Urban Institute, and state and community partners to discuss their collaborative work to increase awareness and uptake of individual income tax credits for eligible low and middle-income Marylanders.

The presentation, “Reaching Residents, Reducing Poverty; Maryland’s Commitment to Increasing Tax Credit Access” will focus on data-driven strategies to encourage more eligible Marylanders to claim the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and Child Tax Credit (CTC) – critical tools for combatting poverty – and will highlight the new funding support that will expand strategic outreach in Maryland.

What: Earned Income Tax Credit and Child Tax Credit Research Presentation

When: Thursday, July 17, 2025, 3 p.m.

Where:

Lowe House Office Building
6 Bladen Street, Room 180
Annapolis, MD, 21401

Who:

- Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman
- Governor Wes Moore
- Speaker of the House Adrienne Jones
- Special Secretary Carmel Martin, Governor’s Office for Children
- Senior Researchers from the Urban Institute Tax Policy Center

Media interested in attending the announcement are asked to RSVP to Media Relations Director Robyne McCullough by Thursday, July 17 at 10 a.m., at rmccullough@marylandtaxes.gov

###

Media Contacts

Robyne McCullough

rmccullough@marylandtaxes.gov

410-980-0139 (cell)

Barbara Sauers

bsauers@marylandtaxes.gov

410-212-9414 (cell)

Comptroller of Maryland, 80 Calvert Street, Annapolis, Maryland 21401, United States