

Media Advisory

TODAY: Comptroller Brooke Lierman to Testify before Joint Federal Action Oversight Committee

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (August 11, 2025) – Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman and Deputy Comptroller for Policy Ben Seigel will provide a briefing to the Maryland General Assembly's Joint Federal Action Oversight Committee today on the impact of recent federal action on Maryland's economy.

The testimony is expected to highlight findings from a June 2025 report by the Maryland Office of the Comptroller and the University of Maryland Robert H. Smith School of Business detailing federal government spending and jobs in Maryland prior to the second Trump Administration. The agency is working with University of Maryland researchers on a follow-up report exploring the direct impacts of federal government layoffs and spending cuts on the state.

What: Comptroller Lierman to Brief Joint Federal Action Oversight Committee

Who: Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman, Deputy Comptroller Ben Seigel

When: August 11, 2025, 2 p.m.

Where: Virtually via Zoom. Watch the briefing on YouTube.

###

Media Contacts

Robyne McCullough
rmccullough@marylandtaxes.gov
410-980-0139 (cell)

Barbara Sauers
bsauers@marylandtaxes.gov
410-212-9414 (cell)

Comptroller of Maryland, 80 Calvert Street, Annapolis, Maryland 21401, United States