ANNAPOLIS, Md. (October 8, 2025) — The Maryland Office of the Comptroller will open a new branch office in Baltimore County later this month, relocating from Towson to Windsor Mill.

The new office, located at 3104 Lord Baltimore Drive, Suite 100, offers ground-floor access, ample free parking, accessibility by MTA bus, and convenient proximity to I-695 (Baltimore Beltway). The agency selected this site to offer improved accessibility, visibility, and modern amenities for taxpayers. The final day for services in the Towson Branch Office will be Tuesday, October 14. The new location in Windsor Mill will open on Monday, October 20, 2025.

"This new location is a reflection of our continued commitment to the community and meeting Marylanders where they are," said Ana Garay, Director of the Taxpayer Services Division. "Our dedicated team looks forward to working in our new space and helping more people with their tax needs."
