Comptroller of Maryland Branch Offices to Close Monday, January 26, Due to Inclement Weather

Agency's Call Center will remain open, virtual tax appointments to proceed

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (January 25, 2026) — The Maryland Department of Budget has announced that state offices will be closed tomorrow, Monday, January 26, due to inclement weather.

Comptroller of Maryland Branch Offices will be closed; however, the Comptroller's Call Centers will remain open, and all virtual tax appointments will be honored. Marylanders with questions regarding their taxes are encouraged to visit the Comptroller of Maryland's Service Portal for assistance in making an appointment or with other tax-related questions.

Marylanders with in-person branch office appointments scheduled will be contacted and offered a virtual appointment or invited to reschedule their in-person branch office visit. More information about branch offices can be found on our Locations webpage.
