Comptroller Lierman Appoints New Director of the Administration and Finance Division

Veteran state employee to lead budgeting, accounting, procurement, and administrative services for agency

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (February 9, 2026) — Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman today announced the appointment of Alexandra Reynolds as Director of Administration and Finance for the Comptroller of Maryland.

“Alexandra Reynolds has demonstrated exceptional leadership and deep expertise throughout her career in state government,” said Comptroller Brooke Lierman. “Her commitment to operational excellence and public service will ensure that our agency continues to operate at the highest level with transparency and efficiency to support the people of Maryland.”

As Director of Administration and Finance, Director Reynolds will oversee the full spectrum of budgeting, accounting, procurement, and administrative services across all programs within the Comptroller’s Office.

“I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as the Director of Administration and Finance for the Comptroller of Maryland,” Director Reynolds shared. “I am committed to strengthening our operational processes in order to provide exceptional support for both our internal and external customers while maintaining a high-level of quality and efficient financial and administrative services. I look forward to serving the Comptroller, the Agency and the citizens of Maryland in this new role.”

Director Reynolds began her career with the State of Maryland 31 years ago in the Comptroller of Maryland's General Accounting Division and later served in several roles with the Motor Vehicle Administration. Director Reynolds returned to the Comptroller of Maryland in 2021 as the Assistant Director of Administration and Finance and was promoted to Deputy Director in 2022.
