Comptroller Lierman to Host Ribbon Cutting for New Rockville Branch Office

New Rockville branch will expand access to Comptroller services for residents and businesses in Montgomery County

ROCKVILLE, Md. (July 27, 2026) — Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman will hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Wednesday, July 29 at 11 a.m. to celebrate the opening of the new Comptroller of Maryland Rockville Branch Office. The new office expands access to in-person services for Marylanders in one of the state's busiest regions, making it easier for residents and businesses to connect with the agency for support in filing taxes, accessing unclaimed property, obtaining tax credits, and more.

What: Ribbon Cutting for Comptroller of Maryland Rockville Branch Office

Who:

- Comptroller Brooke E. Lierman
- Secretary of Maryland Department of General Services Atif Chaudhry
- Maryland State Senator Craig Zucker
- Montgomery County Executive Marc Elrich
- Rockville Mayor Monique Ashton

When: Wednesday, July 29 at 11:00 a.m.

Where: 800 King Farm Blvd., Rockville, MD 20850

The ribbon-cutting ceremony will take place outside the building's front entrance and will move indoors in the event of inclement weather. Parking is available on-site.
